

Follow-up discussion of Mr. Carter's lecture

What do YOU think?

Thurs. 26 Apr., 6:30 pm
Meeting Room A
Iowa City Public Library

With his book, Palestine: Peace Not Apartheid, President Carter has started a national discussion that Iowans can be a vital part of.

Please join us for a follow-up discussion of the ideas raised during Mr. Carter's lecture.

Do you want to read his book and discuss it with others in the community? Do you want to get more actively involved in dialogue with the presidential candidates over the issue of Israel/Palestine? Let's get together and talk about what you think and what you want to do about what you hear.

Sponsored by People for Justice in Palestine, www.iowapjp.org

A discussion resource:
www.afsc.org/carter-discussion/

Follow-up discussion of Mr. Carter's lecture

What do YOU think?

Thurs. 26 Apr., 6:30 pm
Meeting Room A
Iowa City Public Library

With his book, Palestine: Peace Not Apartheid, President Carter has started a national discussion that Iowans can be a vital part of.

Please join us for a follow-up discussion of the ideas raised during Mr. Carter's lecture.

Do you want to read his book and discuss it with others in the community? Do you want to get more actively involved in dialogue with the presidential candidates over the issue of Israel/Palestine? Let's get together and talk about what you think and what you want to do about what you hear.

Sponsored by People for Justice in Palestine, www.iowapjp.org

A discussion resource:
www.afsc.org/carter-discussion/

Follow-up discussion of Mr. Carter's lecture

What do YOU think?

Thurs. 26 Apr., 6:30 pm
Meeting Room A
Iowa City Public Library

With his book, Palestine: Peace Not Apartheid, President Carter has started a national discussion that Iowans can be a vital part of.

Please join us for a follow-up discussion of the ideas raised during Mr. Carter's lecture.

Do you want to read his book and discuss it with others in the community? Do you want to get more actively involved in dialogue with the presidential candidates over the issue of Israel/Palestine? Let's get together and talk about what you think and what you want to do about what you hear.

Sponsored by People for Justice in Palestine, www.iowapjp.org

A discussion resource:
www.afsc.org/carter-discussion/

Follow-up discussion of Mr. Carter's lecture

What do YOU think?

Thurs. 26 Apr., 6:30 pm
Meeting Room A
Iowa City Public Library

With his book, Palestine: Peace Not Apartheid, President Carter has started a national discussion that Iowans can be a vital part of.

Please join us for a follow-up discussion of the ideas raised during Mr. Carter's lecture.

Do you want to read his book and discuss it with others in the community? Do you want to get more actively involved in dialogue with the presidential candidates over the issue of Israel/Palestine? Let's get together and talk about what you think and what you want to do about what you hear.

Sponsored by People for Justice in Palestine, www.iowapjp.org

A discussion resource:
www.afsc.org/carter-discussion/